Mentee-Mentor Matching Program

REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS

Course description: The Mentee-Mentor Matching Program is a one-year program (September 2018- June 2019) aimed at graduate students, post-docs, and junior faculty who are seeking guidance on overall career development. The program matches junior investigators with senior faculty who serve as developmental mentors.

Target audience: Instructors, clinical residents and clinical fellows, post-doctoral research fellows, and graduate students pursuing doctoral degrees.

Date applications are due for applicants and endorsers: Friday, August 17, 2018 (applicants). No endorsements are required.

Date by which applicants will be notified: Friday, September 7, 2018

Selection process and criteria:

Program participants will be selected based upon: (1) completed application and (2) equitable institutional representation. Applicants must commit to attend the Program Launch Event (September 25, 2018, late afternoon), the Mid-Year Event (January 9, 2019, late afternoon), and the Closing Event (June 13, 2019, late afternoon). In addition, participants must commit to attend two, one-hour meetings per month with their assigned senior mentor and peer group. Meeting times and locations are flexible and will be determined around the mentee and mentor’s schedule.

Harvard Catalyst’s Education Program offers first priority to applicants who are current Harvard students, faculty, or current employees of Harvard University, its ten schools, and its seventeen Academic Healthcare Centers (AHC), or that of Boston College School of Nursing or Harvard Pilgrim Health Care. A complete list of participating institutions can be found on the Harvard Catalyst website: http://catalyst.harvard.edu/about/.

The next level of priority is awarded to members of the national Clinical Translational Science Award (CTSA) consortium. A complete list of participating institutions (CTSCs) can be found on the CTSA website: https://www.ctsacentral.org/institutions

Applicants who are external to the groups listed above are accepted for a fee when space is available.

Tuition/fee for external participants: Please contact us for more information.
