

Websites for Diverse Photos & Icons

This is a list of websites that have libraries of diverse photos and icons. When creating materials, it is important that images are representative of your audience. Some of the websites are free, while others may have varying levels of payment options.

Website	About	Cost
The Gender Spectrum	A library of stock photos featuring trans and non-binary models	Free
The Noun Project	Wide and diverse range of icons	Free and payment options are available
CDC Public Health Image Library	CDC library of images to use for public health-related topics (examples include natural disasters, laboratory images, health behaviors, everyday activities, and more)	Free
Freerange Stock	Range of photos and illustrations of holidays, locations, industry, agriculture, environment, people, letters & numbers, and much more	Free
Unsplash	Over 3 million photos from a community of both amateur and professional photographers	Free to use with download limits Upgrade to Unsplash+ for unlimited downloads and more content
Nappy	Stock photos featuring black and brown people in different environments and lifestyles	Free Custom branded stock photos available for purchase