

LOCAL TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION COMPANIES

This list of local translation and interpretation companies has been recommended by the members of Community Coalition for Equity in Research working group. Each company uses translators and interpreters that are certified through the American Translation Association and have experience translating/interpreting for clinical and scientific research and health care.

Most language/translation & interpretation company follows the standards of the American Translation Association (ATA), and their translators have ATA certification. Some languages (e.g., Haitian Creole) do not have certifications.
